

WINNING THE RACE

Advancing Education in the Mississippi Delta

MARCH 27 AND 28, 2017

AMZIE MOORE HOUSE MUSEUM
& INTERPRETIVE CENTER

OPEN HOUSE & PRE-CONFERENCE PROGRAM
2017 WINNING THE RACE CONFERENCE
DELTA STATE UNIVERSITY, CLEVELAND, MS

The public is invited to attend the Amzie Moore House Museum & Interpretive Center's Open House scheduled for 2pm – 6pm on Sunday afternoon, March 26th, 2017. Visitors may come and go at their leisure to explore the historic home and the history of our community's local civil rights movement.

A special press conference will begin at 3pm at the Center to recognize and honor Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc. Hosted in conjunction with Delta State University's 2017 Winning the Race conference, the press conference includes a welcome from University President William N. LaForge and Amzie Moore, Jr. with remarks from co-host representatives from the Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc. Conference Planning committee members, Bolivar County Board of Supervisors & Administrator, and the City of Cleveland join in extending this open invitation to those who have registered to attend the Winning the Race conference and the general public.

Both the Open House and the Press Conference are free and open to the public but space is limited.

Free conference registration information and additional information can be found by following www.deltastate.edu/winning-the-race.
